Calum Grant, the band’s bassist said: “We are really looking forward to the show. The opportunity to share our take on Bowie’s classic back catalogue with a new audience is something we thrive on. Just as Bowie would have done, we like to present the material in an effective and tailored way that fits the band performing it and the situation, whilst staying faithful to the essence of the composition.

The David Bowie role is played by our front-man Paul, a great communicator who puts his heart and soul into every performance using imagery, mime, dance and costume changes to involve the audience and make each night something memorable and unique. Most of the favourites will certainly be included along with a few nice surprises hopefully.”

The South Lanarkshire Funding Fair brings together representatives from various funding avenues to talk about their funding and support schemes. Each representative will have a display information stand.

“David - a Journey”

East Kilbride Arts Centre
Friday 1 - Sunday 31 March 2019
10am - 8pm

Local artist David Brown has lived in East Kilbride all his life. Trained and employed as an engineer throughout his working life, art has always been a hobby rather than a profession.

First spark of enthusiasm for art came at age of 10, and it’s never really left him. He has always practiced graphite and ink drawings, focusing mainly on portrait work and animals for private sales and commission work.

Started painting in bold colours in the last two years David found it to be an exhilarating experience. He consider himself on a journey without any set destination. That’s the fun of it for David!

David believes it’s a crime not to try and utilise his gift, and his desire to bring joy to the viewer.
