Note 1

“Occupier” here means the person who is entitled to possession of the site by virtue of an estate or interest therein, for example, as owner or tenant. Where the site extends to not more than 400 square yards and is let with a view to its use as a caravan site the application should be made by the person who would be entitled to possession of the site but for the tenancy.

Note 2

A site licence cannot be issued until planning permission has been granted. If you do not have planning permission for use of the land as a residential caravan site, you may still submit an application for a site licence but the application cannot be progressed until the planning permission has been granted
