Preliminary Report

For the introduction of waiting and loading restrictions

Location: Melville Park, East Kilbride

Proposal: Waiting and loading restrictions

1. Melville Park, East Kilbride is located to the north-east of East Kilbride town centre, and is situated off Maxwellton Avenue and gives access to residential properties.

2. The current restrictions on Melville Park are no waiting at any time.

3. Indiscriminate parking on the radius kerbs (which include bollards) at the lower section of Melville Park, reduce the carriageway width and create issues for the refuse collection vehicles turning and are causing problems with the flow of vehicular traffic, both of which are detrimental to road safety.

4. It is therefore proposed to prohibit waiting and loading at any time along the radius kerbs (which include bollards) at the lower section of Melville Park

5. The Chief Constable, Strathclyde Partnership for Transport and the Local Members have been consulted and have no objections to the proposals.

6. It is recommended, therefore that South Lanarkshire Council advertises its intention to make a Traffic Regulation Order introducing waiting and loading restrictions on part of Melville Park, East Kilbride.
