Health & Safety Policy Statement

South Lanarkshire Leisure and Culture ("the Trust") is committed to developing and maintaining the highest possible standards of Health and Safety. This is important to ensure the safety of staff, customers and anyone else who may be affected by the Trusts activities.

It is the policy of the Trust to comply with both the letter and spirit of the Health & Safety at Work etc. 1974 and all other relevant legislation, and to regard the provisions of this legislation as minimum requirements.

Employees of the Trust have a right to work in safe and healthy conditions. These conditions will be created and maintained by:

- The preparation of, and the adherence to, this Health and Safety Policy.
- The Directors of the Trust fully appreciating that responsibility for Health & Safety is an integral function of effective day to day management.
- The Directors recognising the benefits of a fit and healthy work force.
- Providing adequate Health and Safety training and information to all employees.
- Developing an awareness of staff of the need to discharge their own Health and Safety responsibilities.

We believe that it is important for all personnel, whatever their position, to accept their personal responsibilities as detailed in this policy. We seek active co-operation between management and employees to promote a safe and healthy environment.

Customer safety is also integral to our philosophy. The Trust will ensure that there are effective up to date systems in place to ensure the Health and Safety of all customers.

Finally, we undertake to review and revise this policy as often as required by changing legislation. All changes will be brought to the attention of all employees.
