

Lanark Memorial Hall

A photograph of the Lanark Memorial Hall, a large, multi-story stone building with classical architectural features. The name "LANARK MEMORIAL HALL" is inscribed in large, raised letters across the top of the facade. Several flags are flying from tall poles in front of the building. The image has a slightly faded, sepia-toned appearance.

Lanark Memorial Hall

Lanark Memorial Hall is a Grade B listed building constructed in 1926 in memory of the 232 men belonging to Lanark and District who lost their lives in World War One. Lanark Memorial Hall has undergone a £6 million refurbishment with the support of the National Lottery Heritage Fund and Historic Scotland and is now a centre for cultural activities, the arts, weddings and functions.
